

Description

The University of Sheffield – Inclusive Language in Antenatal and Perinatal Care

The University of Sheffield is providing an online workshop about inclusive language in antenatal and perinatal care. This is part of a project run out of the University of Sheffield, aimed at facilitating and improving gender inclusion in services that provide support around pregnancy and birth. There are more details about the project here: https://engagedphilosophy.org/inclusive/caring-for-everyone-developing-gender-inclusive-language-materials/

Workshop details:
CARING FOR EVERYONE: DEVELOPING GENDER-INCLUSIVE LANGUAGE MATERIALS
We are running workshops to help participants to write public-facing message about perinatal care in inclusive ways.
Workshops provided by: The University of Sheffield

To register for the online workshop (24th June):
https://forms.gle/LAugyBL2o5Br6iYeA

Category

1. All4Maternity Blog
2. News & Views

Tags

1. education
2. inclusiveness

Date Created
6th June 2024